

Bespoke Education Opens New Location in Bronxville

Bespoke Education recently opened a new 1,700 square foot location at 85 Pondfield Road in Bronxville, the fifth of their New York metro area locations. Bespoke is located above Apple Bank on the main shopping street in Bronxville Village, steps from the Metro-North station. Bespoke offers tutoring, mock testing, college counseling, psychoeducational assessments, and small-group classes for students from Kindergarten through graduate school. They also offer private tutoring and placement advising.

Amanda Mellen and Haryn Intner of Admiral Real Estate Services Corp. represented the landlord and tenant, respectively. Admiral, a commercial real estate company also based in Bronxville, provides agency leasing, tenant representation and investment sales services to property owners, developers and office and retail tenants.
