

Augie's Italian to Reopen at 94 Chatsworth Avenue, Larchmont

Augie's Family Style Italian Restaurant & Bar will be reopening at their new location at 94 Chatsworth Avenue in Larchmont in Winter 2016.

Augie's, known for the quality of its food and its large family-sized portions, is owned and operated by Augie Vitiello, who learned how to cook from his parents. "When our patrons walk through the door, they immediately feel at home, knowing they are in the right place."

Haryn Intner of Admiral Real Estate Services Corp. recently leased the space to Augie's, representing both the landlord and the tenant in the transaction.
