

The Pottery Factory Opening in Mount Kisco

Admiral Real Estate is pleased to announce that The Pottery Factory will be opening a new 5,000 sq. ft. location at 181 East Main Street in Mount Kisco. This will be The Pottery Factory's second location; the company also has a store in Brookfield, Connecticut.

The Pottery Factory offers not only paint your own pottery activities, but also glass fusing, soap making and candle making. In Mount Kisco, they will be offering walk-in activities, parties and paint-and-sip nights out.

Located in busy downtown Mount Kisco, 181 East Main Street is in walking distance to the Mount Kisco Metro-North train station, Mount Kisco's Bow Tie Cinemas and numerous restaurants. It is also located across from the large municipal parking lot.

Joan Simon of Admiral Real Estate Services Corp. represented both the tenant and the landlord in this transaction.

The Pottery Factory expects to open its new location in early 2018.

Admiral Real Estate Services Corp. is a commercial real estate brokerage firm, offering investment sales, agency leasing and tenant representation services. Based in Westchester, the company currently lists and/or manages over 100 retail, office, and development properties in the New York metropolitan area.