

Fred Astaire Dance Studios

Fred Astaire Dance Studios, originally co-founded by Fred Astaire in 1947, has grown into a worldwide chain of dance studios. Now, Fred Astaire Dance Studios trains both amateur and professional dancers, and encourages well-being through the joy of lifelong dancing.

In 2018, Fred Astaire Dance Studios will be opening its 24th New York state location at 69 South Moger Avenue in Mount Kisco. Centrally located in Westchester, the Mount Kisco studio will be joining nearby retailers such as Starbucks, Chico's, Chop't, Banana Republic, Bow Tie Mount Kisco Cinemas, Modell's Sporting Goods, Little Drunken Chef, Exit 4 Food Hall, Siegel Brothers Marketplace & Wine Store, Whim Clothing Boutique, Heller's Shoes and Club Pilates, among many others.

FRED ASTAIRE
FRANCHISED DANCE STUDIOS

Both the tenant and building owner in this transaction were represented by Joan Simon of Admiral Real Estate Services Corp., who specializes in retail leasing and sales in Northern Westchester County.

Admiral Real Estate Services Corp. is a commercial real estate brokerage firm, offering investment sales, agency leasing and tenant representation services. Based in Westchester, the company currently lists and/or manages over 100 retail, office, and development properties in the New York metropolitan area.