WHITE PLAINS, NY – “The Heartbeat of Westchester County”

A burgeoning 18-hour city, White Plains, NY is building on its foundation as an established business and shopping center to attract additional residents, shoppers and businesses. White Plains, NY is a bustling and ever-growing city with an endless assortment dining, entertainment, shopping, and recreational options for all ages. White Plains has a population of nearly 60,000 which increases to about 150,000 during the day; there is no shortage of potential.

White Plains, NY is recasting itself as a city for 'urban living', which provides symbiotic benefits for residents, visitors and businesses. The CBD's established business and shopping districts, along with varied restaurant and entertainment options, are requisites for the urban lifestyle, which has in turn fostered the city's multifamily developments. Thousands of multifamily units have been built in the CBD since 2000, including 300 Mamaroneck Avenue / Jefferson Place & One City Place apartments, 15 Bank Apartments, Ritz-Carlton Residences and the Avalon White Plains.

White Plains is also home to many distinguished medical organizations including New York Presbyterian Behavioral Health Center and White Plains Hospital. Further, White Plains Hospital is a leading healthcare provider in Westchester County and home to many renowned programs and services.
